Play with Sally, Trix.
I will go to school."

"Come, Trix," said Sally.
"Paul wants to go to school.
I will not go to school.
You and I will play here."

"May I go with you, Paul?
May I go to school?"
said Sally.

"See Mother," said Paul.
"Come and see Mother."

"Sally wants to see you,"
Paul said to Mother.

"May I go to school?"
said Sally.

Paul looked at Mother.
Sally looked at Mother.

"May Sally go?" said Paul.

Paul and Sally went to school.

Paul said, "Stop here!
Stop and look, Sally!"

"See the car," said Paul.
"Stop for the car, Sally.
Stop and look."

Paul looked and looked.
Sally looked and looked.
Then Paul said, "Come!
We will go to the school."
Paul and Sally went on.

"Do you see the school?"
said Paul.
"Yes," said Sally.
"Come, Sally," said Paul.
"We will go on."

At School

“Here is the school.
Stop here, Sally,” said Paul.
“We do not run.
We stop and look.
Then we go into the school.”

Paul went on into the school.
Sally went with Paul.
“Walk, Sally! Do not run!
We do not run at school.
We walk,” said Paul.

“See, Sally,” said Paul.
 “We do not run at school.
 We do not push.
 Do you see, Sally?”
 “Yes, I see,” said Sally.

“Will you walk?” said Paul.
 “Yes, I will,” said Sally.
 “I will not run.
 I will not push.
 I will walk.”

At Home

Paul and Sally went home.

"Here is Trix," said Sally.

"No, no, Trix! Play school!
Do not run and do not push.
I do not run and push."

Sally looked at Trix.

"Oh, no, Trix!" said Sally.

"Down, Trix, down!
Come and play."

Sally looked and looked.
Then Sally said, "Oh, oh!"
Paul looked and looked.
"Yes, look!" said Paul.

"Run away, Sally,"
said Mother.
"Run away and play.
Run away, Paul.
Go and play with Trix."

Sally rolled the ball to Paul.

The ball rolled on and on.
Then away went Trix for the ball.

"Stop, Trix!" said Sally.

"Come away, Trix!" said Paul.

"Paul wants to help Trix.
Sally wants to help Trix,"
said Mother.

"Sally wants to help Mother.
Come away, Mother," said Sally.
"Come away."

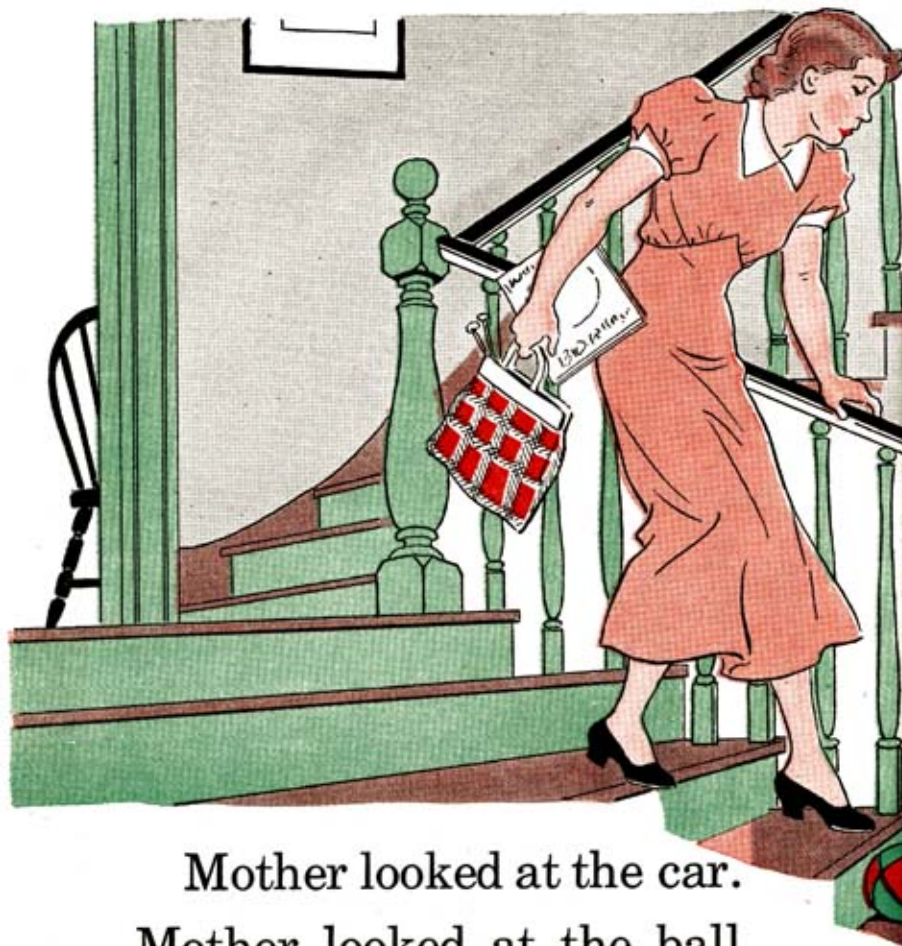

Sally and the Steps

"Come and play, Paul!
Come and play with the car.
We can play with the ball, too,"
said Sally.

"Stop, Mother!" said Paul.
"You may fall.
See the car on the steps.
Here is the ball, too.
Do not fall on the steps.
I will put away
the ball and the car."

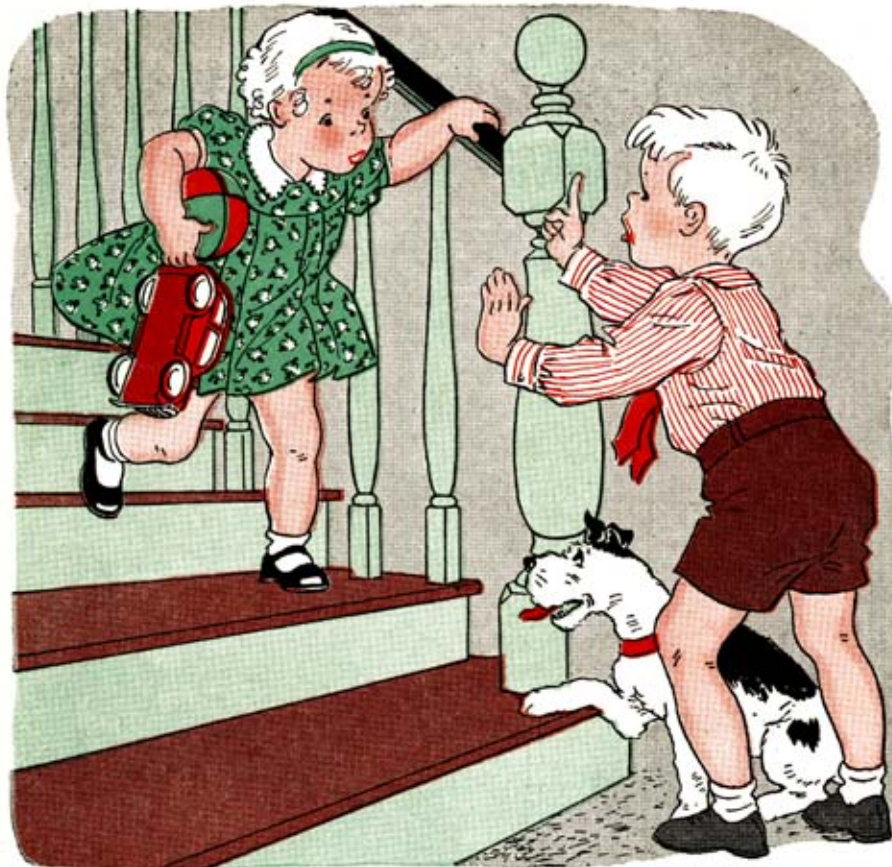

Mother looked at the car.
Mother looked at the ball.
Then Mother looked at Sally.

"Oh, Sally," said Mother.
"We walk on the steps.
Do not play here, Sally."

"I will put away the ball,
I will put away the car, too.
I will not play here, Mother,"
said Sally.

“Walk down the steps, Sally.
Do not run,” said Paul.
“We walk down the steps.
We do not run on the steps
at school.”

Then Sally put away

“You and I will play school,”
Sally said to Trix.
“We will walk down the steps.
We will not run.”

"Look, Sally," said Paul.

"Look at the snow."

"Oh, snow!" said Sally.

"Mother, come and see the snow."

"May we play in the snow?"
said Paul.

"Yes, Paul,"
said Mother.

Trix did not stop.
Down, down, down went Trix.
Trix rolled down the steps and into the snow.

“Look at Trix!” said Paul.
“Look at the snow on Trix.”

“Stop, Sally,” said Paul.
“You may fall, too.
We will help Mother.
See the snow on the steps.
We will clean the steps.
Then we can clean the walk.”

“We like to help you,”
Paul said to Mother.
“Look at the clean steps.
Look at the clean walk, too.
You will not fall on this walk.
Come and play in the snow.”

Drip, Drip, Drip!

“Drip, drip, drip!”
went the rain.

“Drip, drip, drip!”
went the rain on the steps.
Away went the snow.

“Look at the clean steps.
See the clean walk,” said Paul.

“Drip, drip, drip!”
went the rain on the walk.
Paul and Sally like to walk in the rain.
Paul and Sally like to go to the store for Mother.

Trix went to the store with Paul and Sally.

"Drip, drip, drip!"
went the rain on Trix.

"See Trix run and play in the rain," said Sally.

"I like to run in the rain, too."

"No, no, do not run, Sally.
Do not run with the umbrella.
You may fall," said Paul.
"Hold the umbrella up.
Then you can see to walk."

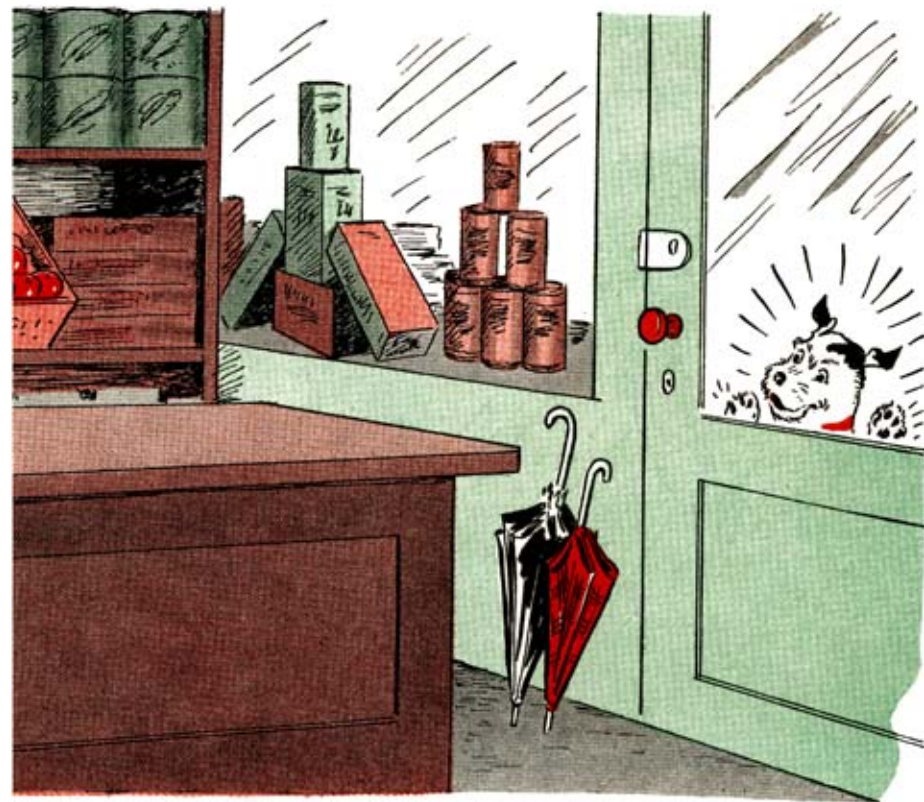

Paul put the umbrella down.
"This way, Sally," said Paul.
"Hold the umbrella this way."
Sally put the umbrella down.
"See, Trix," said Sally.
"This is the way to hold the umbrella."

Paul and Sally went into the store.
"Stop, Trix," said Paul.
"You can not go into the store.
You can not see the store man.
You like to run in the rain."
Trix did not go with Paul.

"Did you run in the rain?"
the store man said to Paul.
"Oh, no," said Paul.
"Not with this umbrella!
Sally and I walk in the rain."
"Then this is for you!"
the man said to Paul.

"Sally," said the store man,
"did you hold the umbrella up?"
"Yes, I did," said Sally.
"Then this is for you,"
the store man said to Sally.
"And this is for Trix, Paul."

Up and Down

“Up I go! Down I go!
Up and down I go!” said Paul.
“Look, Sally! Look, Trix!
Up and down! Up and down!
This is the way I go!”

Sally rolled the ball.
The ball rolled to Paul.
Away went Trix and Sally.
“Stop, Trix! Stop, Sally!
I can not stop,” said Paul.
“Do not come this way.
Go away and play.”

“Come, Sally,” said Paul.
“You may go up and down, too.
I will push you.
Hold on this way.
Hold on, Sally! Hold on!
Up you go! Down you go!
Up and down you go!”

“Look, Trix! Look, Paul!
Up I go! Down I go!
Up and down I go!” said Sally.
